

October 2023

This Month's Spooky Fruits & Vegetables!

Pepino Melons

This melon tastes like a cross between a cantaloupe and honeydew and has the texture of a pear.

Candy Beets

These beets have a sweet and earthy taste, similar to swiss chard.

Dracula Blood Oranges

These "raspberry oranges" have a complex floral and tart flavor.

Autumn Royal Black Grape

These grapes have a succulent, juicy flesh that is refreshingly melon-like.

Kiwi Berries

These berries have a bright, sweet and acidic flavor with a dry aftertaste that makes your lips pucker.

Jazz Apples

These apples are crisp with a mildly sweet flavor and hints of spice.
